Photography between Poetry and Politics: The Critical Position of the Photographic Medium in Contemporary Art

Convenors:

Hilde Van Gelder, K.U. Leuven hilde.vangelder@arts.kuleuven.be

Helen Westgeest, University of Leiden h.f.westgeest@let.leidenuniv.nl

The ambition of this session is to examine a recurrent question in the recent literature on the use of the photographic medium in contemporary art. It concerns the multiformity of the use and ways the photograph manifests itself in diverse artistic practices today. Central to the debate is the question whether photography has a hybrid or chameleonic character because it can be part of entirely different multimedia/mixed media works of art, such as the combination of photographs and text, photography in painting, slides in video installations, digital photographs in computer art, photographs in installation art, etc. Or does the photo-image nowadays mainly serve as a useful tool to make a renewed kind of ‘tableaux’, manifesting its ‘pictorial autonomy’ yet as such often being marked by a rather noncommittal and ‘poetic’ visual imagery? When photographic practices aim at raising a critical debate on the internal workings of the artistic system itself or on broader social problems, is the photograph then able to distinguish itself from a merely ‘political’ statement or a pamphlet? A wide variety of papers addresses these issues, either situating them in a larger theoretical perspective or departing from a case study.
