Wrong Jacket

by Carole Bromley

Strange how it felt alien, the silk lining colder, wool rough to the touch;

in the pocket a spat-out sweet, a bus ticket to Middlesbrough, a blood-stained tissue - too late to return the coat, I wasn't even certain where I'd picket it up.

So I became her, this woman with the nose bleed, a dislike for Nuttall's Mintoes a life supporting Borough, job in costume jewellery at Binns, fine Saturdays scrambling up the scree to reach the summit of Roseberry Topping.

Vocalist is encouraged to wear an ill-fitting wool coat or jacket with random objects in the pockets, such as a train ticket, sticky sweet and a tissue.
