

Interviews

16 Interviews were conducted with students learning across different forms of distance education

Theme Revision and Development – Overall

- Student voice designed specifically for distance education.
- Creating the conditions for authentic feedback.
- An entanglement of technology, environment and people
- Human connection at distance enables student voice